

LearnKey Releases SharePoint Configuration

-This new course is the most effective way to learn how to streamline everyday business activity-

St. George, Utah—October 10, 2007— LearnKey, Inc. has produced SharePoint Services 3.0 Configuration training course and will soon release the SharePoint Content Management and Collaboration training course. The LearnKey SharePoint courses increase the efficiency of business processes and improves team productivity with tools for collaboration that help people stay connected across organizational and geographic boundaries.

“In today’s working environments, communication is imperative to balancing communication overload. This is where SharePoint will really make an impact for teams sharing information and needing version control, centralized storage and sharing documents.” Jamie Franzman, COO of LearnKey, Inc. “Erin Olsen really shows how easy it is to implement SharePoint in working environments. Once an organization learns the how and the why behind using SharePoint teams will be able to solve issues quicker, with less work and confusion in the work flow process.”

LearnKey’s SharePoint Services 3.0 Configuration course is taught by renowned expert Erin Olsen, founder of PCKeys Technology Solutions. She has personally trained more than 10,000 people worldwide in a wide variety of applications and technologies. In this SharePoint course watch as Erin teaches you how to simplify communication and easily implement SharePoint in your organization. She will teach you how to make a good site plan, use master pages, create team templates, build centralized administration of documents and work with workflow.

Erin holds a MOS Master Instructor certification and has assisted numerous organizations to maximize efficiency using Microsoft, Adobe and Macromedia software tools.

LearnKey’s SharePoint Services 3.0 Configuration course costs $285.00 for individuals, or $995.00 for a multi-user license. The course is available online, and on CD-ROM. The course is available for purchase through http://www.learnkey.com/sharepoint_training.
